

Winter Wonderland

Hancock County Convention & Visitors Bureau

Snow, Hot Chocolate, the Holidays...there is so much that goes into Winter. While getting cozy at home is great, don't hibernate this winter. Hancock County has so much going on this season, we will see you out and about!

Children's Museum

Everyone gets restless in the winter but it is especially tough on children. Whether your child is an infant or a middle-schooler, the Children's Museum of Findlay has something for them. Along Little Main Street there are activities designed for children to learn while doing, all while appreciating what Hancock County has to offer! They also frequently have events that are educational and fun for all! CMFindlay.com

Fun at the Parks

The Hancock County Park District boasts numerous events and activities each week for adults and children alike. Whether you are interested in photography or nature journaling or attending a Kids in the Park or Wee Ones event, make sure to take advantage of the parks winter programming. Plus, you could always go on a winter hike or play disc golf! HancockParks.com

Signature Events

Between the Winter Blues Festival, The Arts Partnership programming, Red Cross Oscar bash and many events in between there is plenty to do this winter in Hancock County! Learn more about all the events on our event calendar. VisitFindlay.com

Sledding

Sledding is a tried and true favorite winter activity of most people and there are plenty of opportunities for that fun in Hancock County as well! There are many favorite sledding spots, between the reservoir, Rawson Park, Island Park, and many other hidden spots, but all are great for an afternoon of fun! Make it a true tradition by grabbing a meatloaf sandwich at The Fern afterward! HancockParks.com

Cross Country Skiing

Some find it difficult to find positive things about snow. But with the right amount of it you can have a ton of fun in our parks! The Hancock Park District's Raccoon Run Sports Center offers Cross Country Ski and Snowshoe rentals. If you want to learn how, beginner ski lessons take place on some Saturdays. If you are a more experienced skier, check out the Night Skis that also take place! HancockParks.com
