

Fall Fun for All

Hancock County Convention and Visitors Bureau

Fall is the perfect time for fun activities with your family. If you are searching for more "treats" this fall than tricks, these activities are geared toward you. Enjoy the foliage and brisk weather, sip some cider and pick a pumpkin. Enjoy the fall!

Hancock Parks

Hancock Parks has a variety of activities planned this fall! Schedule a Colorful Fall Hayride at Riverbend Recreation Area, gather a group for a float trip on The Blanchard River, primitive camping and bridle trails are also available at Riverbend. Learn something new this year by attending one of the many educational activities planned this fall (for the kids or the whole family!) For a casual day, take advantage of the cool weather and go for a walk or bike ride on one of our many trails.

HancockParks.com

Group Float on The Blanchard River

Harvest the Past

Harvest the Past

Harvest The Past celebrates our history at Litzenberg Memorial Woods on September 28. There will be music, horse drawn hayrides, children's activities, living history characters and a historical Farmer's Market!

Third Thursday

Every third Thursday of the month, many downtown businesses are open late with special deals for you. The Third Thursday in October will be extra special with Halloween activities planned for the family!

DowntownFindlay.com

Findlay Traditions

Traditions are important and Halloween traditions are no different! Join us downtown on October 28 at 7:00 p.m. for the City of Findlay Halloween Parade, and take part in Trick-or-Treat on October 30, beginning at 6:30 p.m. HancockLeadership.org/Parade

The Pumpkin Train

Visit the Northwest Ohio Railroad Preservation on County Road 99 near Findlay to ride the Pumpkin Train! The Pumpkin Train transports families to the pumpkin patch where kids can choose their pumpkin, load it on the train and take the train back to the station. NWORRP.org

The Pumpkin Train

E

Homestead Fall Farm & Geckle Orchard

Both located on Township Road 258 in Alvada, Homestead Farm and Geckle Orchard are co-hosting Autumn Open Houses September 20-21, 27-28, October 4-5 and 11-12. Homestead Fall Farms is home to a putt-putt course, barrel train rides, hayrides, pumpkins, mums and indian corn. Geckle Orchard features fresh-picked apples and delicious cider as well as vinegar and honey. You can also take a free orchard tour or behind-the-scenes tour to see the cider press. Visit their facebook pages to learn more!

Geckle Orchard

 Visit Findlay!
Hancock County Convention & Visitors Bureau

*City of Findlay Halloween Parade,
Photo by Randy Roberts*

*Homestead Fall Farm
Courtesy of Facebook*

Learn more at visitfindlay.com!